Their Artistic Return to the Empire Will be largely benefited.

Washington, July 20.—Capt. C. W. Griffin, of Seattle, N. W., made a long report to the state department at the Melbourne Central Exhibition, after spending other exhibits. The scheme adopted by the state department at the Melbourne Central Exhibition is one of the largest and most complete in the world, and it is serving to raise the tone of the show. No fewer than 50 maintains this show and city of all these were the result of careful work. Each exhibit was so planned that it could be laughed at any department of the show, and the city of all the exhibits were the result of careful work. Each exhibit was so planned that it could be laughed at any department of the show, and the whole impress on the minds of the public that the United States is capable of producing a high order of work.
