LET ALL GIVE PRAISE.

Monday, August 19, 1889.

LONDON BREAD TRUST.

LONDON AND LIVERPOOL

Clothing House.

This space belongs to the

London and Liverpool

Chas. Reichenbach,

Proprietor.

International Exchange.

LONDON, AUG. 19.—The London and Liverpool

Clothing House.

THE ONLY FIRST-CLASS CLOTHING HOUSE

IN THE CITY.

906 and 904 Pacific Avenue, corner Ninth Street.

LONDON, AUG. 19.—The London Bread Trust, a company of English merchants, has recently been

formed for the purpose of buying and selling bread.

The company is capitalized at £1,000,000, and

is expected to make a profit of £50,000 per year.

The company has already purchased a large

quantity of bread, and is now engaged in shipping

it to the United States.

LONDON, AUG. 19.—The London and Liverpool

Clothing House has recently been

formed for the purpose of buying and selling cloth.

The company is capitalized at £1,000,000, and

is expected to make a profit of £50,000 per year.

The company has already purchased a large

quantity of cloth, and is now engaged in shipping

it to the United States.

LONDON, AUG. 19.—The London Bread Trust has

recently been

formed for the purpose of buying and selling bread.

The company is capitalized at £1,000,000, and

is expected to make a profit of £50,000 per year.

The company has already purchased a large

quantity of bread, and is now engaged in shipping

it to the United States.

LONDON, AUG. 19.—The London and Liverpool

Clothing House has recently been

formed for the purpose of buying and selling cloth.

The company is capitalized at £1,000,000, and

is expected to make a profit of £50,000 per year.

The company has already purchased a large

quantity of cloth, and is now engaged in shipping

it to the United States.

THE BREAD TRUST

LONDON, AUG. 19.—The London Bread Trust has

recently been

formed for the purpose of buying and selling bread.

The company is capitalized at £1,000,000, and

is expected to make a profit of £50,000 per year.

The company has already purchased a large

quantity of bread, and is now engaged in shipping

it to the United States.

LONDON, AUG. 19.—The London and Liverpool

Clothing House has recently been

formed for the purpose of buying and selling cloth.

The company is capitalized at £1,000,000, and

is expected to make a profit of £50,000 per year.

The company has already purchased a large

quantity of cloth, and is now engaged in shipping

it to the United States.

THE BREAD TRUST

LONDON, AUG. 19.—The London Bread Trust has

recently been

formed for the purpose of buying and selling bread.

The company is capitalized at £1,000,000, and

is expected to make a profit of £50,000 per year.

The company has already purchased a large

quantity of bread, and is now engaged in shipping

it to the United States.