THE TACOMA OF THE NORTH!

FAIRHAVEN

is destined to be a great manufacturing and commercial center, because it has

The finest harbor on the Pacific Coast;

The greatest area of adjacent agricultural land;

The most magnificent scenic beauty in the world;

The largest body of water in the west;

Mountains of first-class ore;

Quarries of blue and green stone for building purposes;

Lime in immense quantities;

The terminus of the Fairhaven & Southern railroad, the best equipped line on the coast, now being built to the north, south and west, by which it will intersect all the transcontinental railways.

In fact, Fairhaven has all the resources required to build up a great city and give employment to a large population.

FAIRHAVEN

Offers the same opportunity for investors that Tacoma presented a few years ago, by which access of people have made their fortunes of thousands out of the investment of a few hundred dollars. Now is the time to purchase property, as it will soon be beyond the reach of small capitalists. Call and see us. We make a specialty of this property.
