NOTE THE EFFECT
In the above illustration, the boy is seated and the girl is standing. The children's faces are smooth and free of the rough, hard skin that is common in children's faces. The girl's face is soft and smooth, with a healthy glow. The boy's face is also smooth, with a healthy complexion. The children are wearing a variety of clothing, including shirts, pants, and dresses. The clothing is well-fitted and appears to be comfortable. The children are also holding books and other items, indicating that they are engaged in reading and other activities. The setting is a comfortable and well-lit interior, with soft lighting and warm colors.
