THE WALLA WALLA SUBDY

An Interesting Letter from an Oregon Pioneer.

Qualitative Essays Adopted for the Purpose of Promoting the Arts from There.

WALLA WALLA, W. T., July 23, 1889.

Dear Sir:

I am writing to you from the beautiful town of Walla Walla, located on the banks of the Columbia River. It is a city of great beauty, with its rolling hills and picturesque scenery. The people here are friendly and hospitable, and I have been welcomed with open arms.

I have been here for some time now, and I must say that I have been impressed by the quality of life here. The air is fresh and clean, and the weather is mild and comfortable. The town is well-organized and the people are hard-working.

I am sending you some photographs of the town, which I hope you will enjoy. Please let me know if there is anything else you would like to know about Walla Walla.

Yours truly,

[Signature]

Morning Oregonian, July 23, 1889, at 6